Announcement

2018 funding for

Northeast Land Trusts Engaged in Farmland Protection

in cooperation with the

The purpose of this grant program is to support sustainable regional food systems through the protection of critical farmland in the New York and Boston foodsheds.

The 1772 Foundation has announced that funding will be made available for land trusts meeting the following criteria:

- Have a primary interest in farmland protection
- Protect farmland within a 100-mile radius of Boston or New York City (see map) or anywhere in the state of New Jersey
- Have adopted the Land Trust Alliance's Standards and Practices

Requests of up to $250,000 for farmland acquisition (acquisition capital costs as well as transaction-related costs) will be considered.

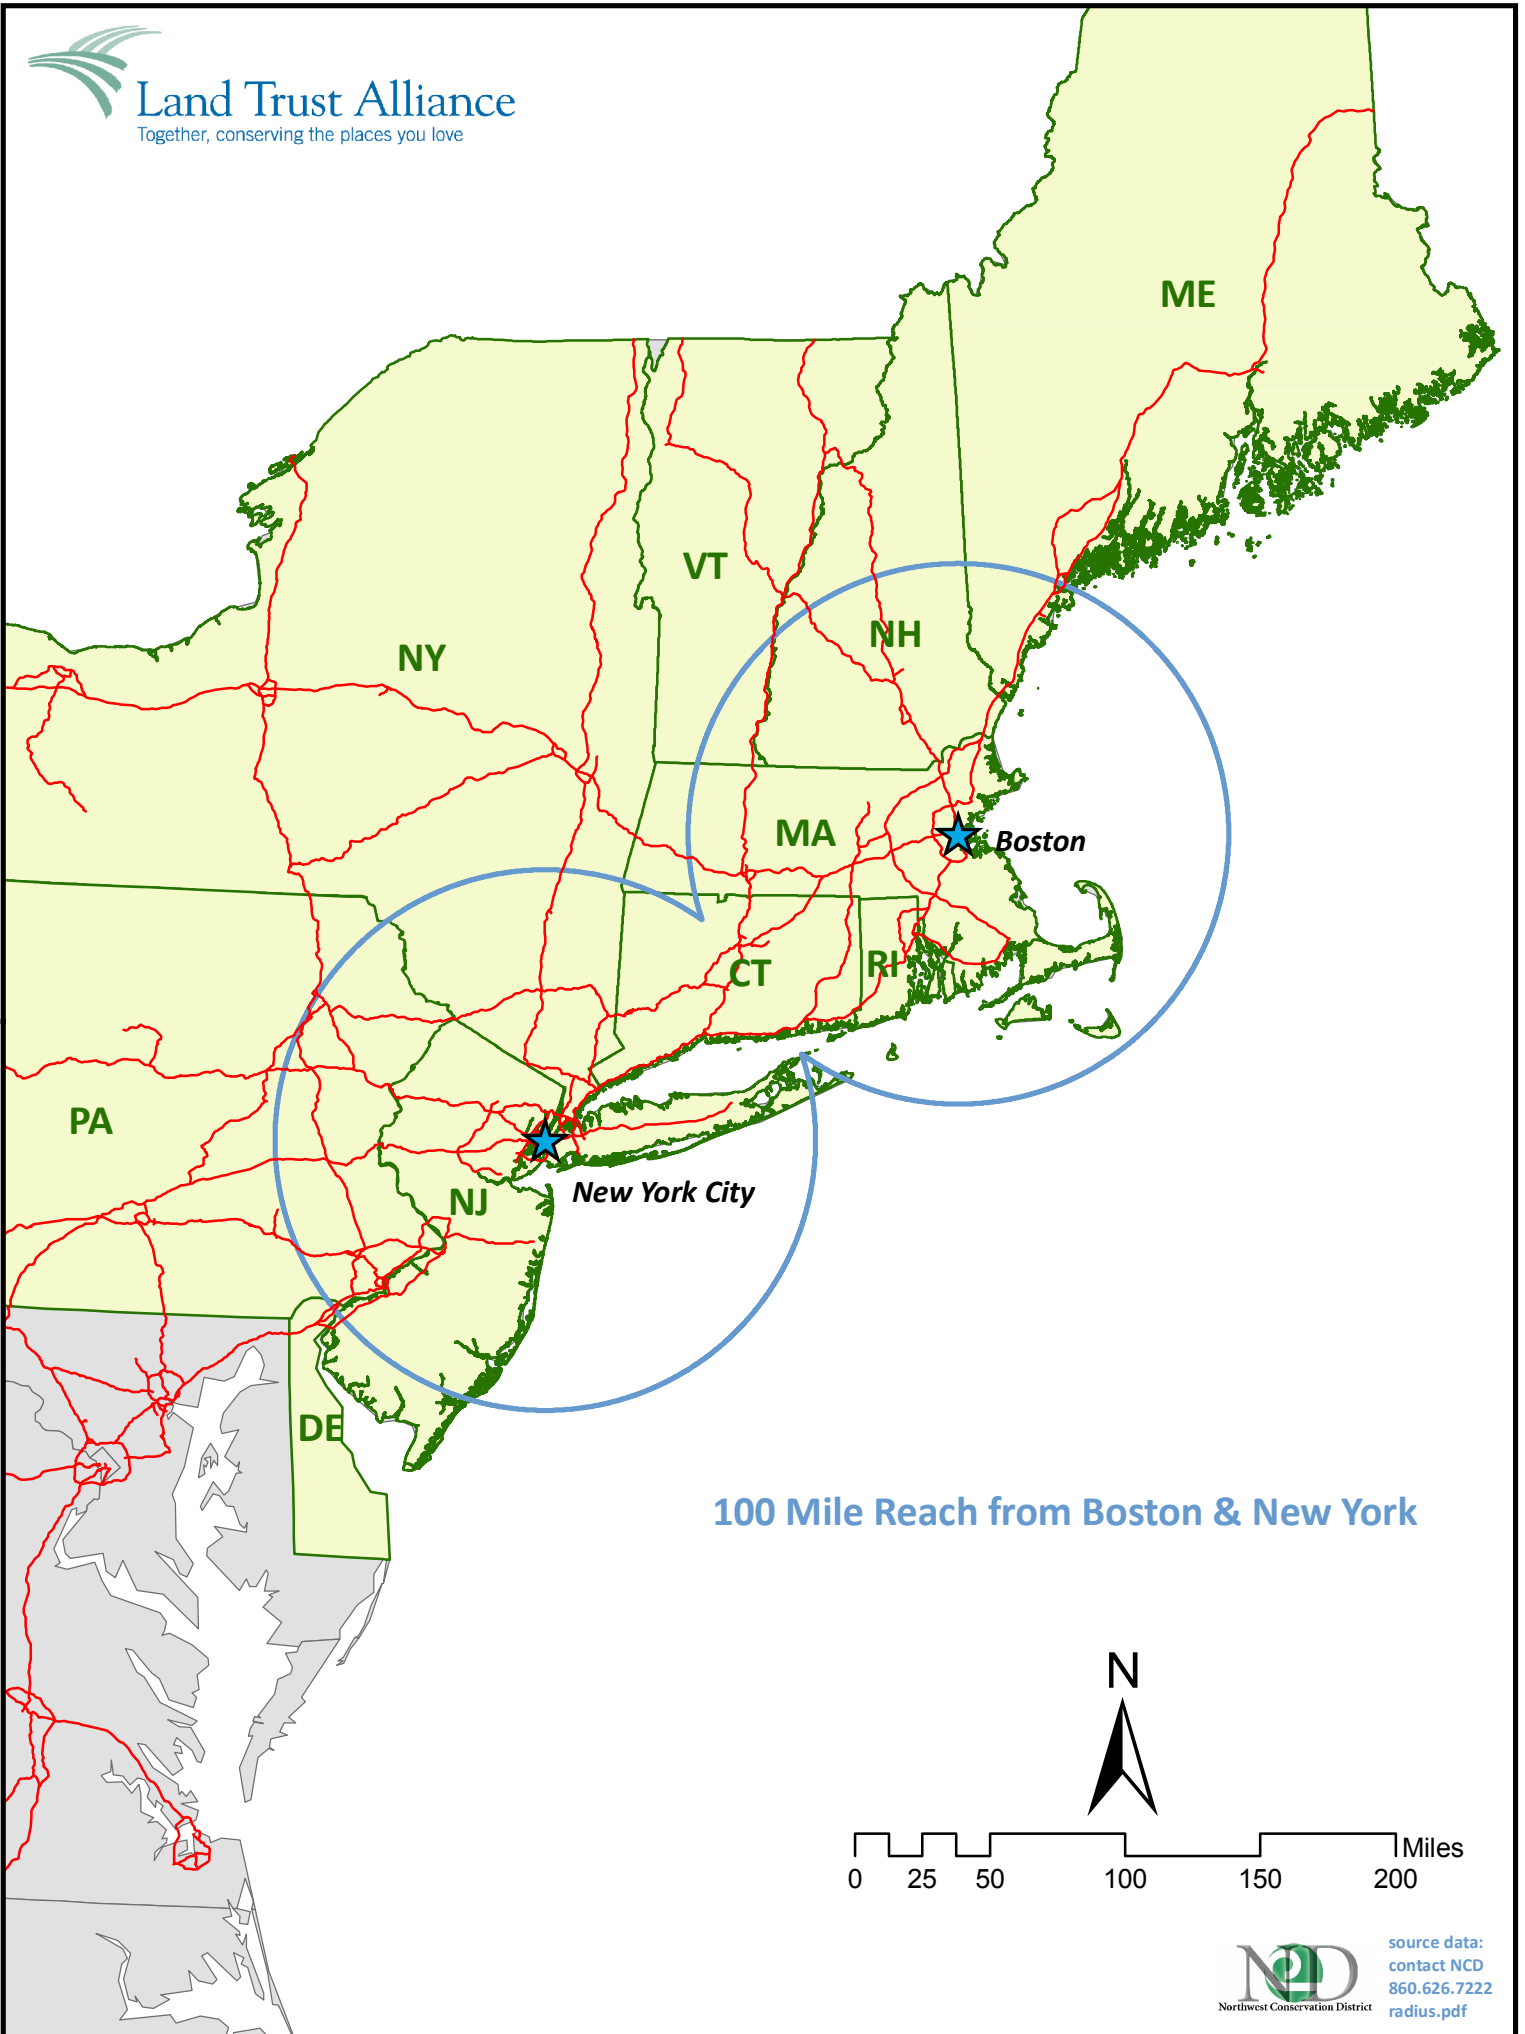

The 1772 Foundation is accepting applications submitted on or before June 8, 2018 for consideration at its August board meeting.

Applications will be reviewed with the assistance of the Land Trust Alliance and notifications of award will be made no later than August 15, 2018.

To be eligible to apply, organizations must have a 501(c)(3) IRS designation. Applicants who have matching funds are most favorably considered.
